CHRIS HAIRSTON

Chris,
It's been nice knowing you in English this year. You're always laughing and seem to be having a good time (in English?)
Have a great summer and I'll see ya next year. love, Jayne Wiersema

Chris,
I don't really know you except that your a real cute girl, Its been nice knowing u- I hope to see you next yr.

Chris,
I don't really know that much this year even though we had a class together but you sat on the other side of the room. I hope we can become better friends next year you seem really sweet. It was a real fun this year especially when we had our basketball team even though we didn't win but we went to the same team we're suppose to next year. It was a great season and good luck in everything you do.

Hi Chris

Chris,

I've really enjoyed knowing you these past years. I hope that next year we'll become closer yet. I hope the future holds nothing but happiness for you. May God always bless you and keep you in his care. Let's stay friends OK!

Love you always,

Jeanette Jaquez

John-n-Jeanette

We put IT together to help you remember how IT is...

Christine,
You are a really funny girl. Youre really fun to be around. Stay's even weirder (HA! HA!) Good luck in the future Richard and everything else.
Friends always
Dank

what IT is all about and we would like to dedicate IT to LOUISE HENNEGEN

For the past 15 years, Mrs. Louise Hennegen has been a positive influence at Chino High School. As the school secretary for the last 11 years, she has helped to hold the school together and has helped to make our high school the great school it is. Because of her concern, co-operation and caring, we are honored to dedicate this 1977 yearbook to Louise Hennegen.

I've known Louise Hennegen for the past 15 years. During this time she has brought four principals through some difficult situations. I know I can speak for Al Searfoss, Vic Paulson, and Terry Terril in saying that Louise is a "super lady" and a fantastic secretary.

To me Louise is the "spirit" of Chino High. Every morning she has a cheerful "good morning" for all staff members. Louise is kind, friendly, considerate and above all a dedicated staff member of Chino High.

The El Chasqui staff has made an excellent choice--Congratulations Louise and thanks.

Dick Ferguson
Principal of Chino High School

Upon my arrival as principal of Chino High School I was greeted and oriented by Mrs. Hennegen. She has spent extra hours---(without compensation) to help reorganize and get school open. She serves not only as secretary but as office manager and does an excellent job.

Mrs. Hennegen's work has been outstanding. Her secretarial skills are excellent. Her knowledge of her job and the complete school organization have been invaluable. The rapport she exhibits with parents, students and staff is outstanding.

In short, Louise Hennegen is one of the finest secretaries with whom I have had the opportunity to work.

Terry L. Terril
Former Chino High School Principal

If there are any questions or confusion, Louise is the one to call. If you need to get something done; tell Louise, she will have it done for you. If there are changes in administration, Louise holds things together so we don't have to start all over each time. Louise Hennegen is so much more than the school secretary. She is our friend! She takes an interest in each one of us. She is concerned about us, our families, and our activities. She makes us feel happy, accepted, and worthwhile. For this and so much more we would like to say "THANKS!"

If you need to feel important, if you need to feel at ease. If you need to see a friendly smile, then you need to see Louise.

With Great Appreciation,
The Teachers of Chino High School

It has been my privilege and pleasure to associate with Mrs. Louise Hennegen both as a friend and employer.

Mrs. Hennegen was first employed as my secretary during the 1965 school year. She accepted the secretarial position and she performed her task in a most capable and efficient manner. Louise has an excellent personality which makes working conditions around her most pleasant. She has encouraged and fostered excellent moral with all employees. Louise performed her job in an efficient, conscientious and dependable manner.

We certainly appreciated her efforts in making Chino High School a better place. We congratulate her for being chosen for the great honor of having the yearbook dedicated to her. It is my feeling she is an outstanding person and worthy of this honor.

Alvin C. Searfoss
Former Chino High School Principal

As the principal's secretary, Mrs. Louise Hennegen's hands are full of responsibility. Still, she is willing to set down what she's doing to answer anyone's questions, and is aware of almost everything that is going on in Chino High. She often takes upon herself small tasks and spends extra time to help things run smoother.

It's amazing how someone so loveable and helpful can survive the massive organized confusion of Chino High without a nervous breakdown. She is just like a bouquet of flowers, and we love her bunches.

The Grateful Students of Chino High School

It was an extreme pleasure during my time as principal of Chino High School to have had as my secretary, Louise Hennegen. Words will never express the magnitude of work performed by Louise.

At the same time she was able to be a true friend to the Administrators, the Administrators families, teachers, students, parents and her fellow employees.

I guess the best way to sum up my feeling for Louise would be to say, "there is no person I would have wanted to have in that capacity other than Louise, she is efficient, loyal, friendly, and cares deeply about her boss". I am sure that by now Mr. Richard Ferguson would attest to all of this.

Congratulations Louise, I am truly pleased that you are the recipient of this award.

Vic L. Paulson
Former Chino High School Principal

Chris,
Well it has been real fun in science to see you this year. I hope you enjoy this summer & next year. I wish you and Richard all the best. Don't get into any trouble ok. Chris don't change in the world. Don't get uptight-up and cute a-Nd-sweet your also a good person. Good luck in the years to come. I hope you can be better friends with your mad chris for making us a good team. Thank you for everything. Keep in touch, friends always,
Sally
"78"
Thank you for a mad summer
Well that was all I have to say

We are a high school who has IT, and

IT shows !

Chris,
You're really the funniest girl I know. I'm so glad that I got to know you over the last year or so better in the last year or so. I really like you alot because it can't be around with you and you always look back at me. Love ya and good luck in the future.

Love,
Richard Hanchy

The Hello Dance, sponsored by the Senior Class, purposed the welcoming back of returning classes, and greetings to the new. On September 25, from 8-11 the dance was held in the multipurpose room. Although SPICE is a super band, it was quite a surprise to have them show up instead of the scheduled band. Everyone had alot of fun and enjoyed an evening of dancing. Such enthusiastic participation ended the dance with good feelings. Thanks to all who contributed to make it such a success.

The Chino High Varsity Football team has had the priviledge of having their games broadcast over the radio Station of KSOM! Not too many fans stayed home to listen to the Cowboys' battles, and Chino kept its reputation of having crowds of great numbers come and cheer for their team. The Cowboys didn't disappoint their audience. They fought with all their strength to live up to Chino High School's Alma Mater.

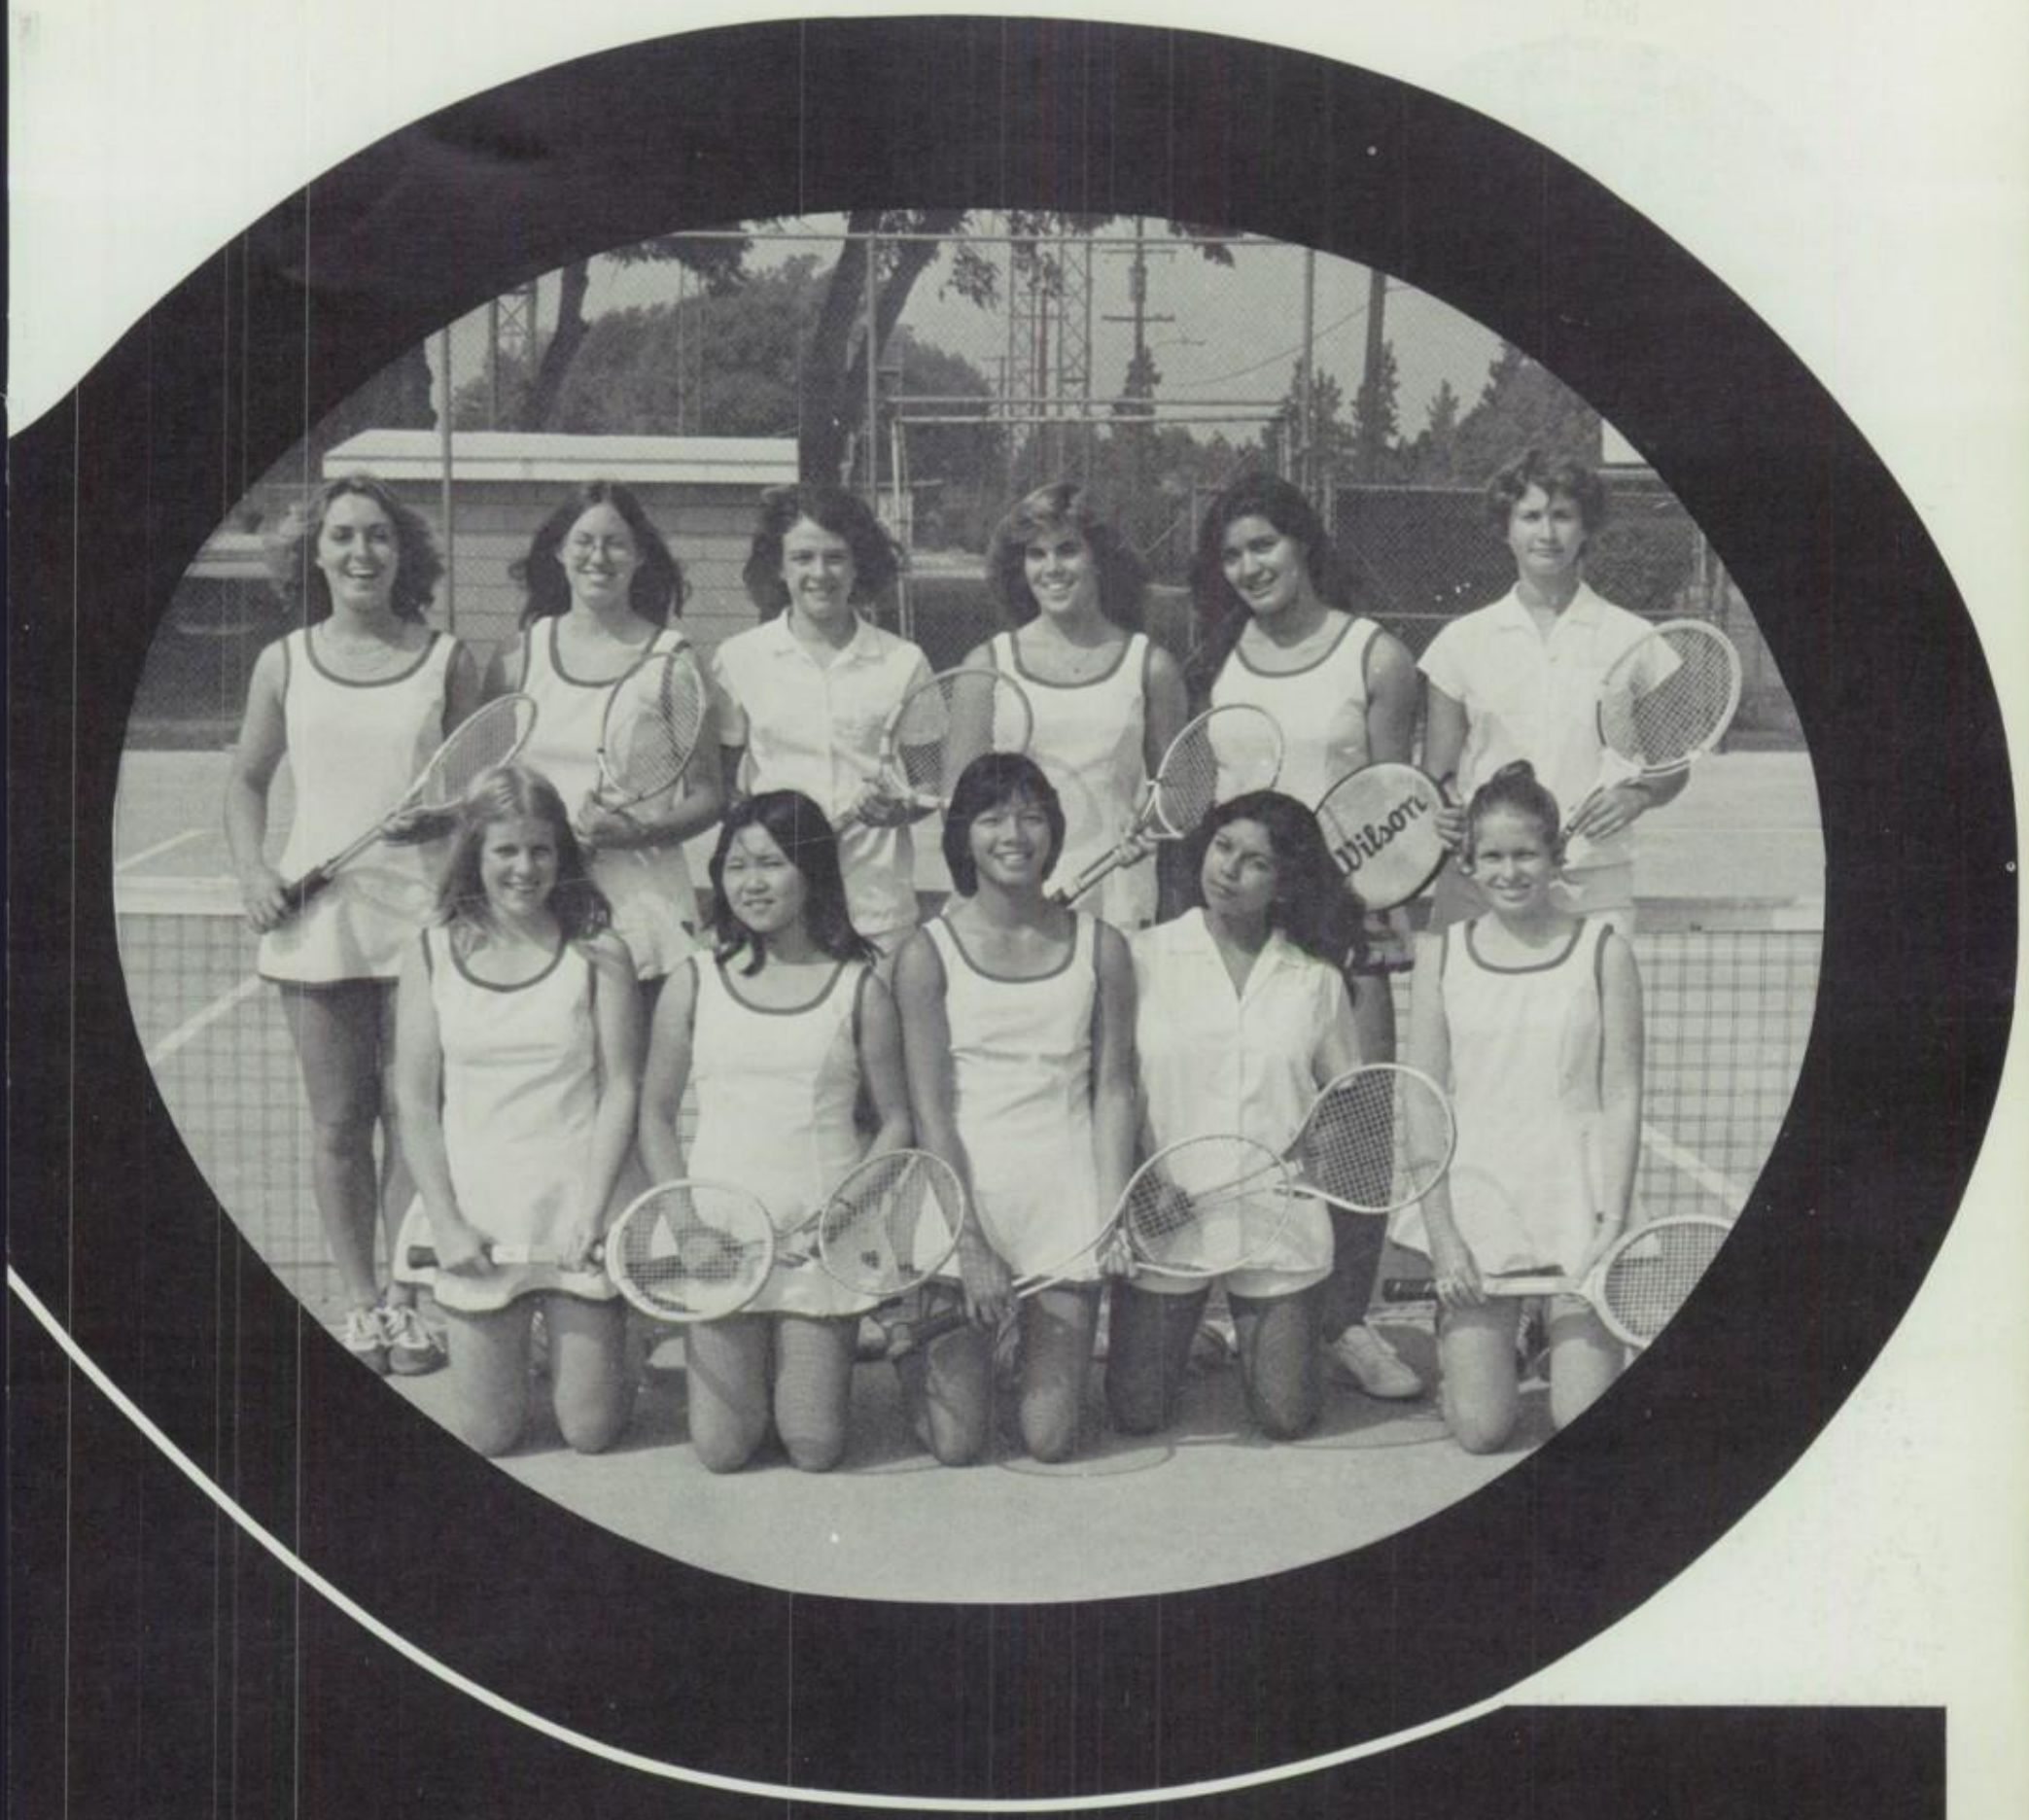
COACH BARCUS

Varsity Team: Jill Howie, Pam Bromley, Sheri Fewins, Kellie Elliott, Cheryl Labbee, Michelle Vassar, Patti Stueland, Deanne Wiltek.

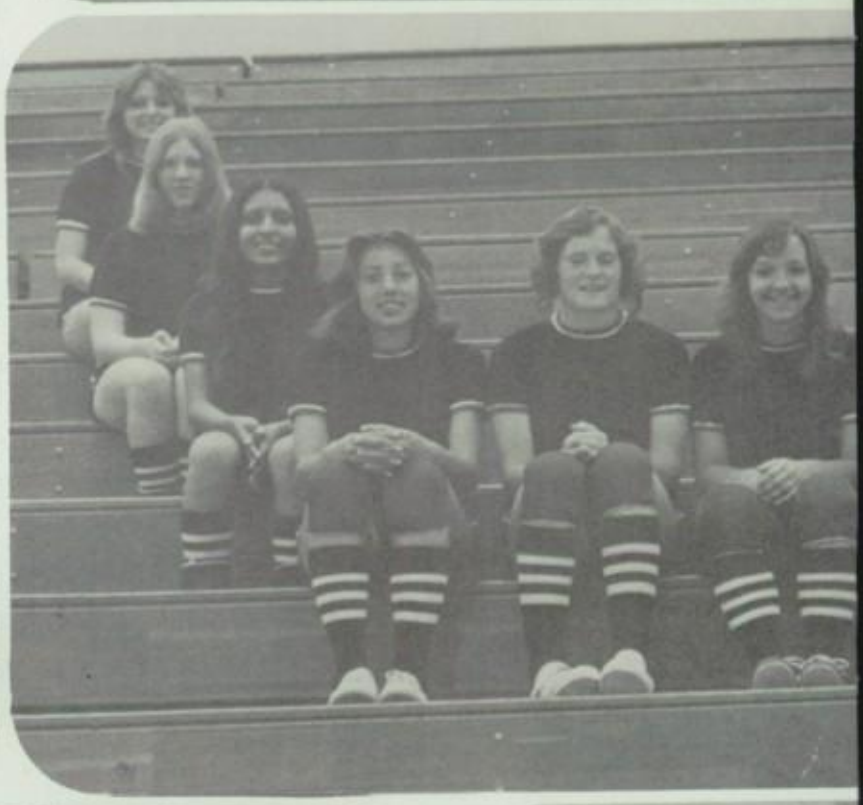


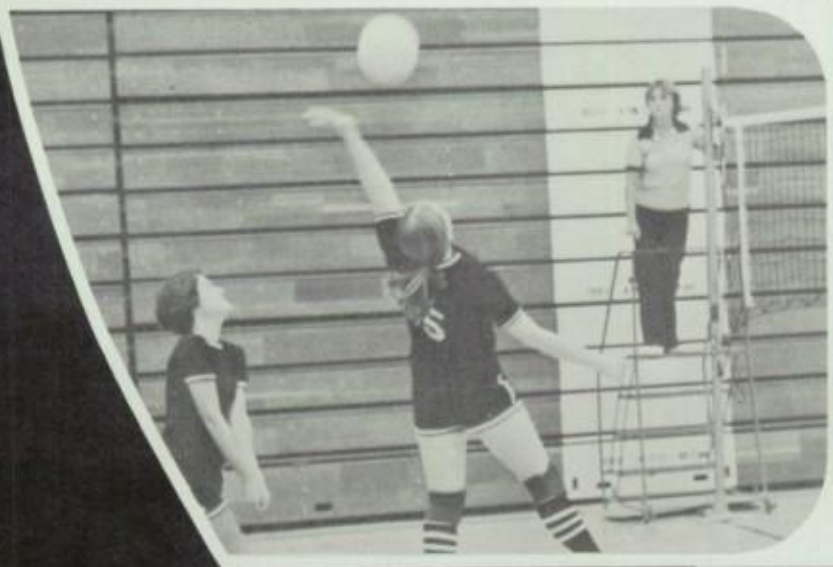
J.V. Team: Row 1: Nadine Clothier, Michelle Vassar, Lori Pearce, Terree Malins, Kellie Elliott, Jennie Montanez.
Row 2: Shari Lotton, Insil Kim, Candy Shue, Adela Esparza, Linda Leis.

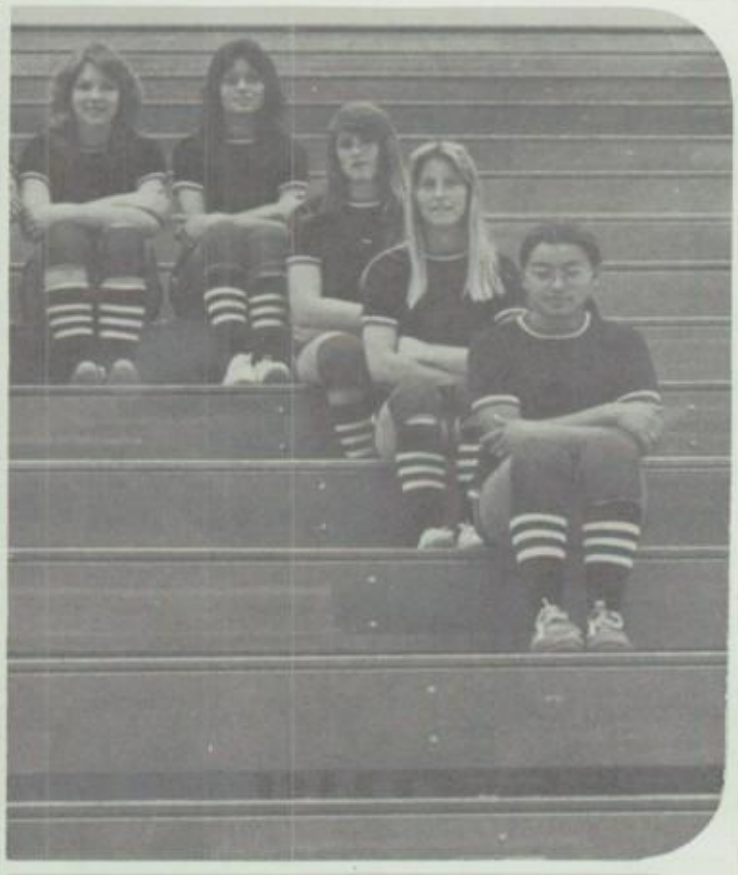
Chris,
You're a really neat person and I'm glad I got to know you this year. I enjoyed being in P.E. with you, you're such an athelet. Good luck in all you do.
God Bless,
Lee Ann

GIRLS' VARSITY AND JUNIOR VARSITY

Varsity Team Marga Stretch, Carolyn Davis, Leanne Davis, Lynn Hawkins, Kathy Balint, Vickie Nielson, Carrie Scheinost, Patti Porras, Terri McClintock, Carol Kissinger, Pat Dominguez.
J.V. Team Dorothy Muntz, Debbie Offut, Eva Reza, Connie Castaneda, Kathy MacIntyre, Lori Scheinost, Lisa Abacherli, Janet Bromely, Valerie McAlpin, Carrie Rodgers, Florence Yamamoto.

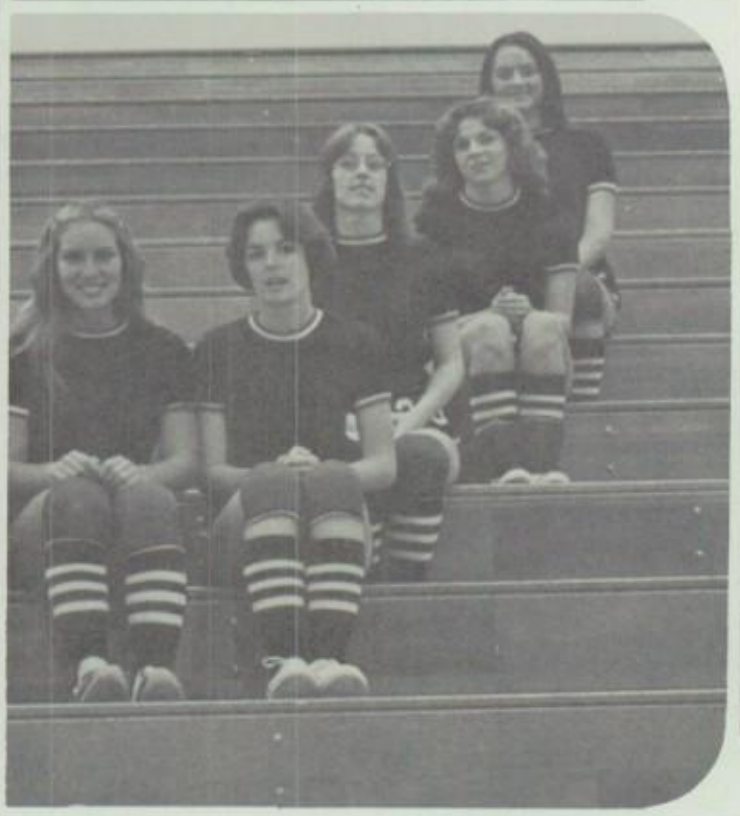






J.V. VOLLEYBALL

This year's Varsity Volleyball team was coached by Miss Gray. She did an outstanding job teaching the team the basics of the demanding sport. Helping Miss Gray to teach the techniques of volleyball was the J.V. coach, Mrs. Yanez. Both teams put in a lot of effort and hard practices to make the season an exciting and enjoyable one.



"El Chasqui has given me illusions of padded walls and clean white coats."
Janelle Wurst

STUDENTS WHO EXCEL

Lus Vasquez has just been in this country for a few months and she is adjusting very well. She is in Mr. Kramer's class for New Americans and is doing splendidly.

Janet Seaton does very well in her reading class. She seems to enjoy it too. Jeanne Berterretche was a top student in Drivers Education. She has been Mr. Long's T.A. for two semesters and is so efficient, dependable, mature and trustworthy that the teacher need not even be there.

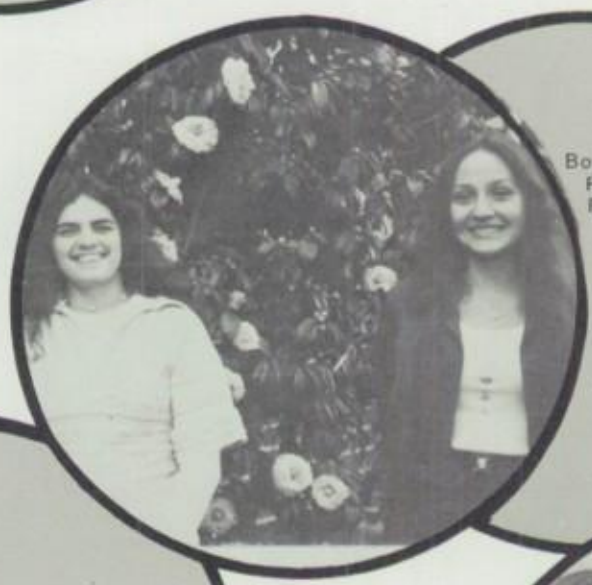
Maria Garduno, Roxanne Rev, and Theresa Huggins have all been selected by Mrs. Middleton for their ability in reading. They have improved and developed many skills.

Janelle Wurst is always staying over extra time and putting in many hours whenever there is a deadline or rush for the El Chasqui. She is always there to help out and comfort others.

Mike Daubenspeck is an excellent student in ceramics. He is a constant worker and is always helping others. Mr. Bergeson says Mike has a real care and consideration for the subject of ceramics.

Verna Sipes was also nominated by Mr. Bergeson as a student who excels in ceramics. Verna is always able to work alone. She is self-motivated, and helps others. She is constantly cheerful which makes her all the nicer.

Gale Coleman has Coach Luke for "Changing Society". Mr. Luke says Gale excels in class by promptly and efficiently completing all assignments. She averages A's on her tests and contributes in class discussions.



Both Susanna Reza and Dianna Reeley were chosen by Mr. Shryer for excelling students in his govemment class. They get good grades on their tests, and always have their work in on time.

Insil Kim is a model student. She is conscientious, cooperative, and creative. She does well in creative writing.

Leah Miller and Candy Shue excel in their General Biology class. Mr. Cunnian says, "These two continuously achieve high marks and demonstrate a high degree of understanding."

John LaBrucherie and Elaine O'Rourke were nominated by Mr. Siem in Fed. Government. They have A's on all their tests. They are interested and attentive. They both ask intelligent and useful questions.

Rev Mengle and Lisa Beckwith are outstanding students who demonstrate a great comprehension of American History and Social Studies. Mr. LeSaout has both of these students.

"Being nominated for Social Psych was great because it is THE class."
Diane Kuyoomjian

STUDENTS WHO EXCEL

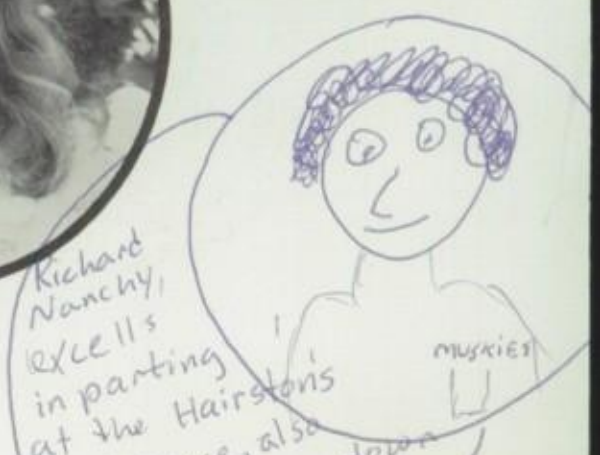
Leopoldo Santibanez excells in reading. He works well on his own (self-directed) and goes beyond the assigned or expected.

Mrs. Matoi gave Jeff Pippin a great compliment by saying he was an "outstanding student in Algebra." Jeff gets his homework in on time and it is neat and correct.

FFA president and outstanding student, Brent Stovall, is the ranch manager for Palmer Angus. He hopes to someday go into some aspect of agriculture.

Mr. Le Saout nominated Steve Silva for his abilities in American History. He is efficient and accurate with his assignments.

Mary Aldersebaes excells in her government class. Mary doesn't have time to engage in other activities but she keeps up her marks.



Diane Kuyoomjian was nominated by Mr. Vaniman for her exceptional abilities and performance in Social Psychology. She has a lot of good feelings and is willing to openly share them with others.

Sheila Bales and Robert Hulgan are 'A' students in Grammer Skills. They always have their homework done completely, neatly and on time. They are also helpful to fellow students.

Marian Hatanaka is excellent in Typing 3 and Florence Lanting is outstanding in College Prep. Typing. Both girls are not only excellent students but also fine people.

"I've seen a complete change in Cathy Blakely. Not only have her grades in reading improved, but so has her willingness to reach out and touch others who are a part of her life."

Jennifer Olds was nominated by Mrs. Govett as an excelling student in Contemporary Novel. Jennifer is creative, intelligent, and open. She is an outstanding student in every way.

Angelica Mares and Julie O'Mara were both nominated as excelling students in Calif. Government. Mr. Williams says that they are both conscientious workers and are continuously striving for excellence.

Holly Imbach is the Southern Calif. Regional Future Farmer Vice President, and the Citrus Section President. She is very interested in agriculture. She will be running for a State FFA office in May.

STUDENTS WHO EXCEL

Brian Campbell is one of the photographers for the Lariat and El Chasqui. Mr. Lown, who is in charge of the darkroom said, "Brian has had to do much, spend countless hours after school to take and print pictures. He also works well with all others."

Kim Hall is a Lariat staff member who is willing to do it all. She often stays up until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning to put the paper to bed. She also does well in her other classes. These are a few things that make her a special person.

Gene Scarborough is an excellent craftsman. He excells with mastery on any and all projects he does. Mrs. Barcus is his leather instructor.

Liz Zepeda, a Lariat staff member, is the most supportive member in the group. Mr. Lown comments that she is a person who does an excellent job, spends a huge amount of extra time, and is always willing to help others.

Pat Dominguez is an excelling student in Coed Track P.E. Coach Luke says she is an outstanding P.E. student who follows directions and always gives her best effort.

Lee Wagner excels in Auto Body. Mr. Florenzo says Lee is an outstanding student and is also a very outstanding person.

Anita Acord is also good with her leather work. She is very creative as well as being attentive to her work. She enjoys working with leather and the products from it.

Lori Collins and Peggy Jolly were nominated by Mrs. Schnieder as outstanding students in public speaking.

Lori has a powerful debate manner and she is also a very effective persuader. Peggy isn't always self-motivated but she has a tremendous ability to communicate creatively.

Gilbert Chacon was nominated by Mr. Beck as a former Business Law student. Mr. Beck said," Gilbert is always willing to help, is always a gentleman, and is never without a smile. I think his other teachers would agree that if all students were like Gilbert, teaching would be a much greater pleasure."

Bev Goodrich of the Lariat staff is open with all her fellow students. She is willing to sacrifice much for the paper. She stays after school for interviews, and student conferences in the evenings and on weekends.

Connie Castaneda is an outstanding student in Business Math and Merchandising. She always has a smile, never has a complaint and never has anything bad to say about anyone. She is a very inspiring and pleasant young lady. She was nominated by Mr. Beck.

Jill Watson was nominated as an excelling student in Math Lab by Mr. Long. She accelerated work thru Math Lab and is now helping others.

The leaves on the trees

Have all fallen away,

And the cold Winter's winds

Are here to stay.

Snow covers the ground

And paints everything white.

While inside the house,

The fire burns bright.

So now is the time

To spread Holiday Cheer,

Because Winter's life

Is finally here.

Mark Kuskoski

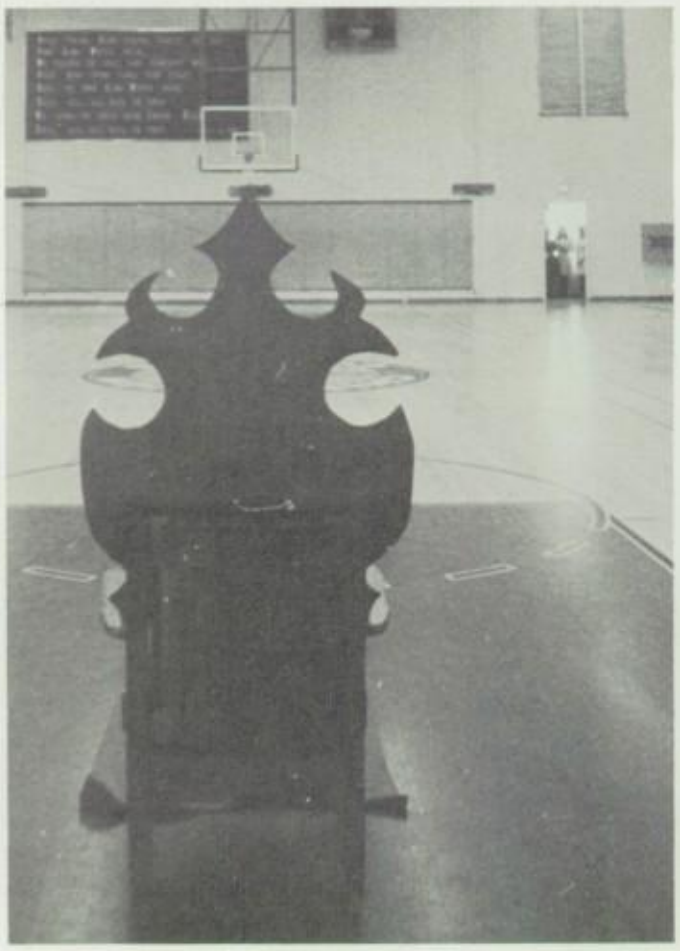
HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

"I never thought I could shake so hard."
Lorita Saunders



The basketball homecoming game was held on Friday, February 4. The excitement of the first half led to the moment we had all waited for, the crowning of the queen. The five princesses were Karen Malins, Nancy McMichael, Carrie Nelson, Kathleen Pfau, Lori Taylor, and honorary princess, Mary Besterveld.

Last year's queen, Suzi Fuentes, crowned the ecstatic Lorita Saunders.

The game ended in an exciting victory over Damien, 54-52. A dance was held following the game with James Rudi Band providing music.

MIDYEAR GRADUATION

"One thing about graduating mid-year is that your senior year sure does fly by!"

LARIAT Cannot Print About Sc

CENSORED

Censorship has been a big concern for the LARIAT staff this year. To start off the year, the newspaper featured an article on the birth control pill. Some School Board members showed disapproval of this article.

As a follow-up article, reporters researched different aspects of premarital sex. Personal interviews covered how premarital sex affects emotions, morals, religious beliefs, guilt, health, and legalities. The Superintendent of Schools prevented this story from being printed. In other words-CENSORSHIP. Many other articles that were planned were considered "verging on the obscene."

Who needs a dark room?

The LARIAT is an official publication of Chino High School, at 5472 Park Place, Chino, California. Distributed to all students, once every two weeks. Type set and reproed by Carole Bell. Printed at Riverside Publishing Company, Corona, California.
LARIAT OFFICE phone – (714) 628-1201

LARIAT STAFF
Editors Board – Bev Goodrich, Kim Hall, Mark Martinez, Liz Zepeda
News Researcher – Gabby Petrissans
Photography – Brian Campbell, Clay Cissell, Kevin Pine
Cartoonist – Aaron Arntson
Advisor – Rhead Lown
Exchange Editor – Abby Arntson
Reporters – Debbie Ames, Diane Bare, Dennis Belmudes, Adela Esparza, Lisa Falcone, Ray Perez, Karen Rybold, Gigi Santiago, Eunice Thimmell

As a result, the LARIAT staff still presented the information. Seminars were organized with the help of Mrs. Baughman, school nurse. Guest speakers from Health Clinics, Chino Youth Services, Family Planning Agencies and local churches spoke on their views and experiences to CHS students.

The staff also continued printing the LARIAT. The publication reached out with various topics, avoiding the supposedly "obscene". In-depth research articles included: Alcoholism, Generation Gap, Early Marriage, Divorce, Hypnotism and Drug Abuse.

The LARIAT staff worked together with dedication and mutual respect. They not only worked to put the paper together, but tried to get to know each other as persons, each with his own strengths, weaknesses, joys, sorrows, and responsibilities.

To Chino High.

I want to thank everybody for making my year at Chino High so nice.
I really enjoyed my stay here.
I won't forget this wonderful year and the people I met.
I was staying with the Elrods. they were a great hostfamily. They gave me a little dog and she will go back with me to the Netherlands.
My best friend here at Chino High was Debbie Castanguy.
There was one thing I didn't like about Chino and that was the hot weather.
I wish to come back to Chino to see everybody again, I really had a wonderful time.

Love you all,

Marjolijn Besterveld.

Where Roses Never Fade

Among the roses straight and tall
And those that drooped against the wall
Was one sweet little opening bud
We loved best of all.

But one fair day the Master came
And called the little bud by name-
Upon his loving breast 'twas laid
To bloom where roses never fade.

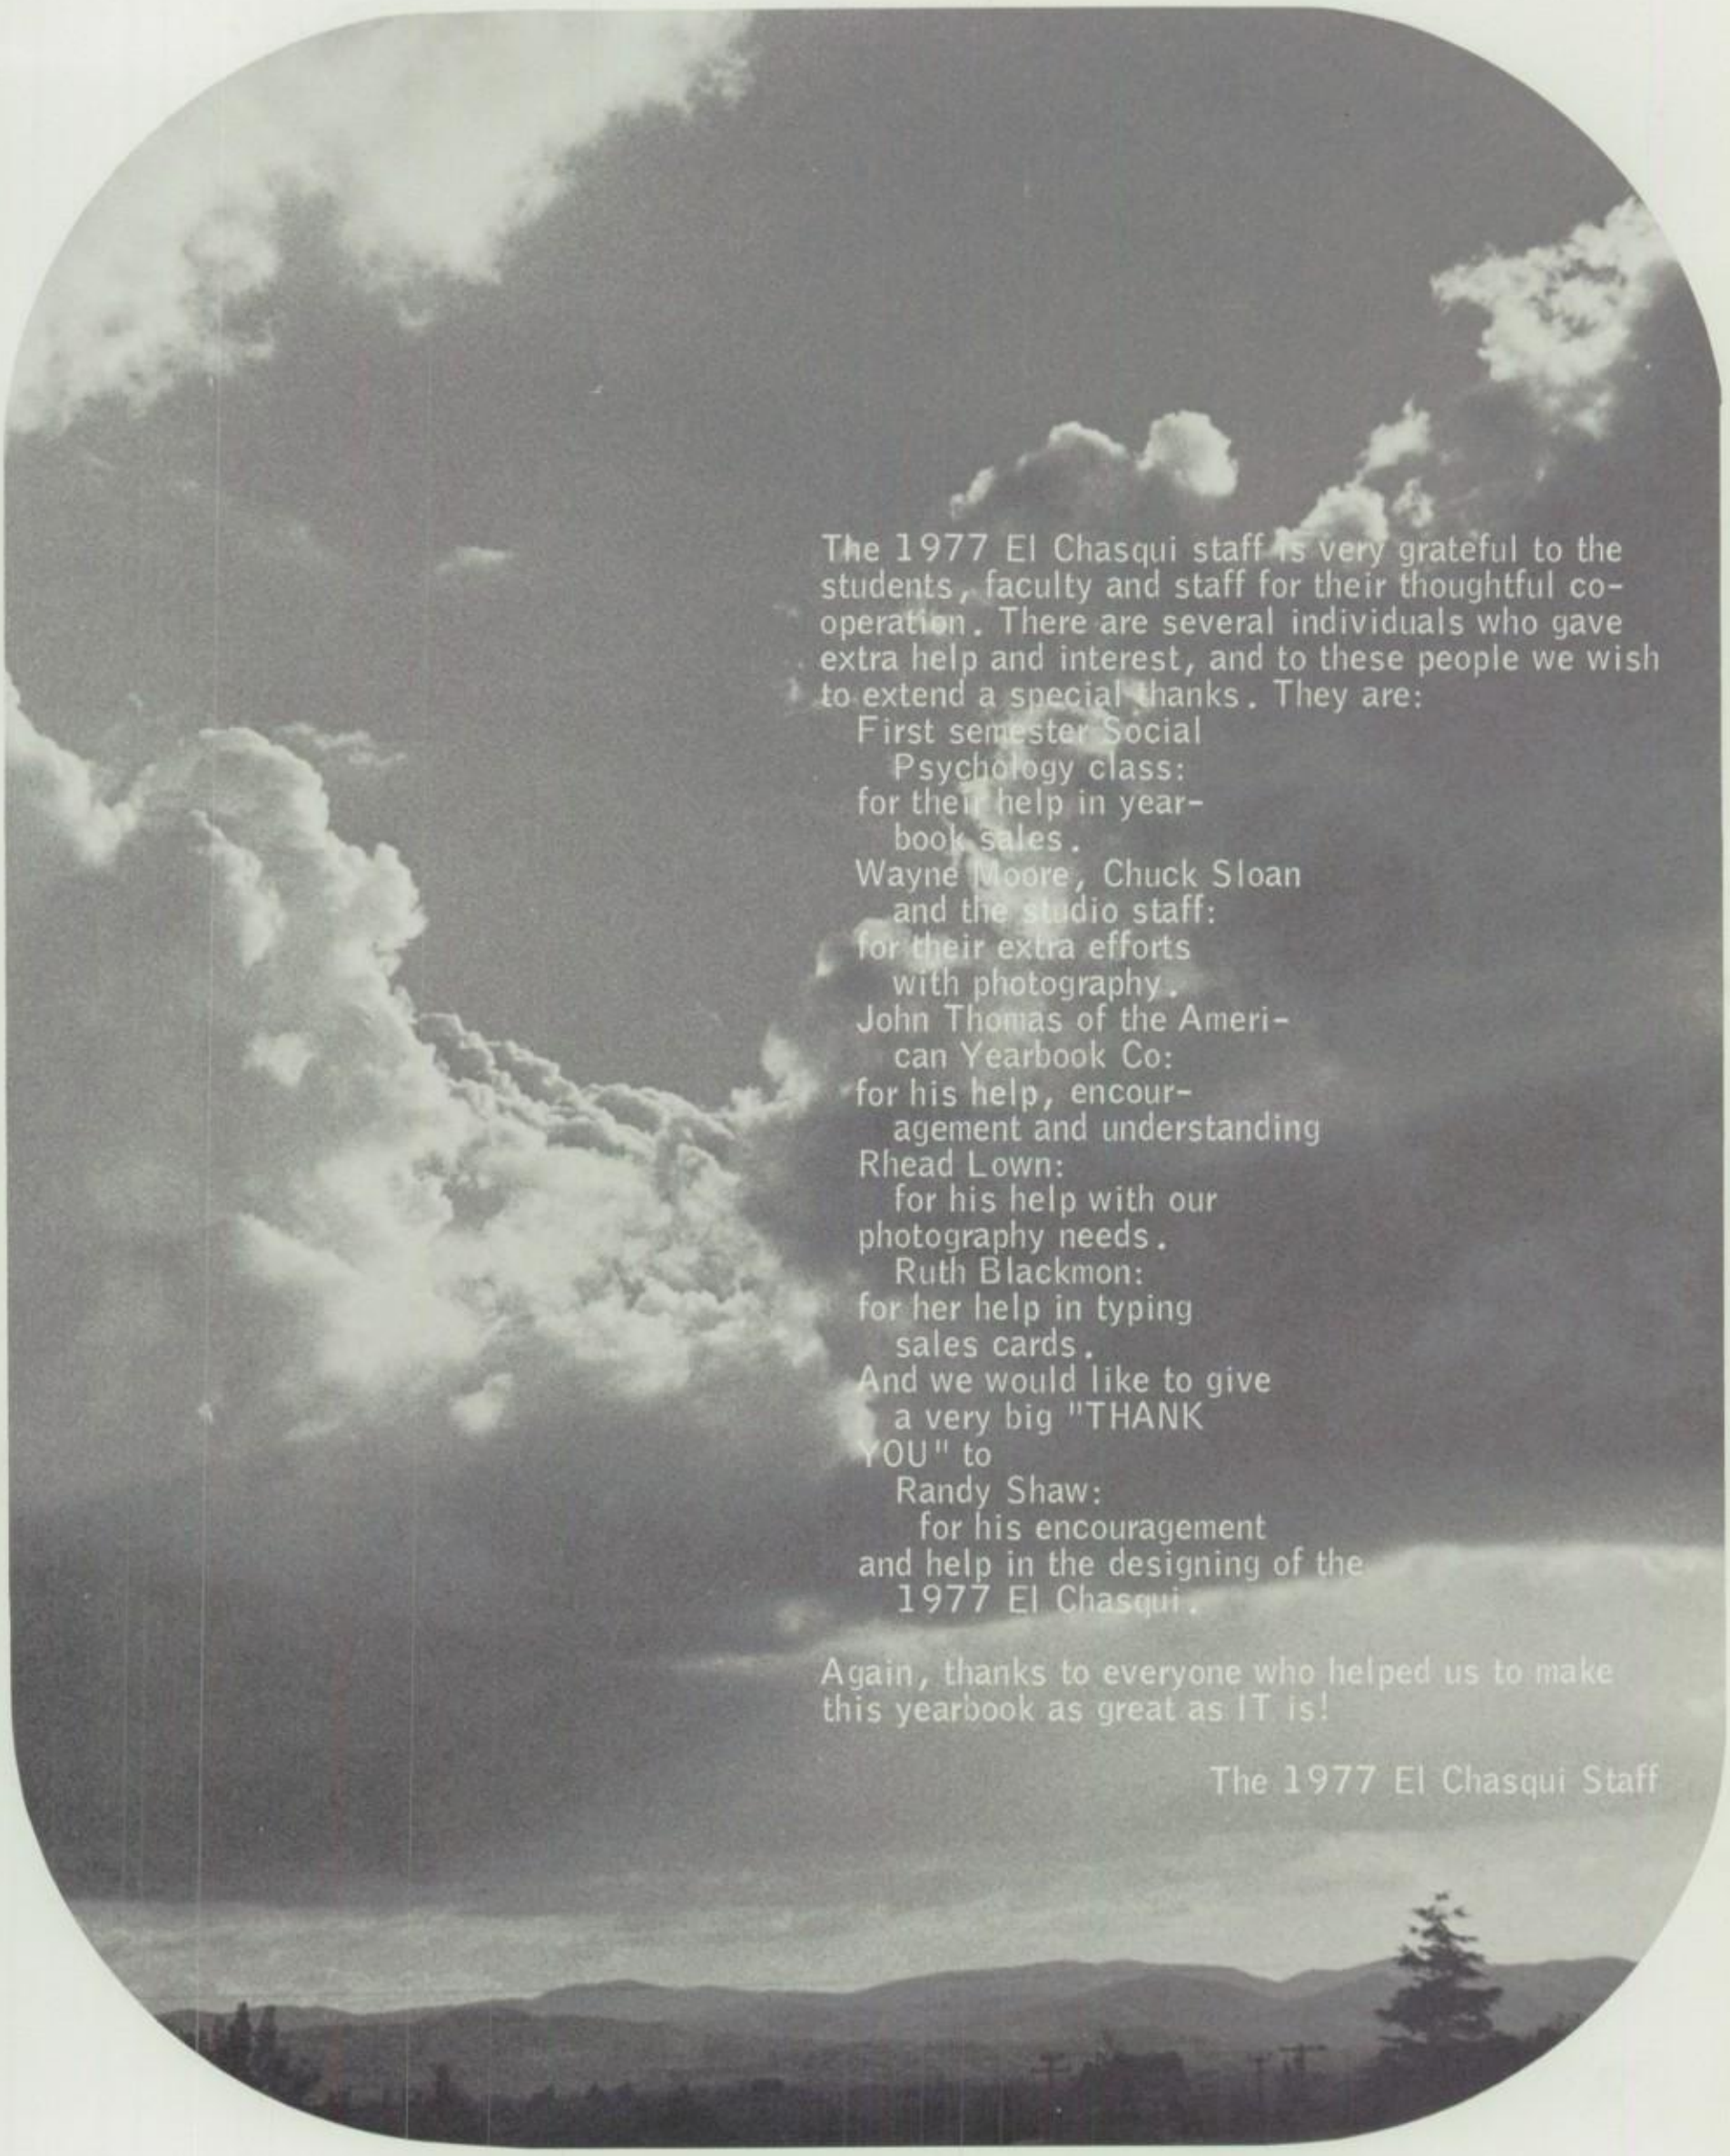
We dare not mourn too much, nor try
To fathom all the reasons why
He plucked the bud and left the rose,
But I am sure the Master knows.

Now looking back across the years,
And having learned the price of tears,
Perhaps 'twere better after all
To miss the blight of early fall.

To miss the storms that rock the night
And times when often might is right,
Forgoing these to bloom for aye
Where roses never fade nor die.

We do not know and have not seen
Across the mists that drift between,
But I am sure the little rose
Upon the Master's bosom knows.

-Myra Brooks Welch



The 1977 El Chasqui staff is very grateful to the students, faculty and staff for their thoughtful co-operation. There are several individuals who gave extra help and interest, and to these people we wish to extend a special thanks. They are:

First semester Social Psychology class:
for their help in year-book sales.

Wayne Moore, Chuck Sloan and the studio staff:
for their extra efforts with photography.

John Thomas of the American Yearbook Co:
for his help, encouragement and understanding

Rhead Lown:
for his help with our photography needs.

Ruth Blackmon:
for her help in typing sales cards.

And we would like to give a very big "THANK YOU" to

Randy Shaw:
for his encouragement and help in the designing of the 1977 El Chasqui.

Again, thanks to everyone who helped us to make this yearbook as great as IT is!

(I'VE BEEN) SEARCHIN' SO LONG

by James Pankow

As my life goes on I believe somehow something's changed,
Something deep inside apart of me.
There's a strange new light in my eyes.
Things I've never known, changing my life,
Changing me. I've been searchin' so long to find an answer.
Now I know my life has meaning. Oo.
Now I see myself as I am feeling very free.
Life is ev'rything it's meant to be.
When my days have come to an end, I will understand
What I left behind. Part of me.
I've been searchin' so long to find an answer.
Now I know my life has meaning, wow oh.
Searchin' for an answer, to the question, oh yeah,
"Who am I?" Maybe it's true, it's only nat'ral,
Good things in life take a long time.

Somebody LOVES You
Somebody CARES,
Somebody WATCHES You,
Somebody STARES,
Somebody ADMIRES You
ESPECIALLY your smile.
You make that someones
Life SEEM worth while.
Somebody flips over you,
head OVER heels.
To be in love,
they know just how it feels.
Somebody adores your beautiful eyes,
they think your better looking than all the other guys.
Somebody's in love,
I know it's true,
and if you'll keep silent
I just might tell you
Somebody LOVES YOU

I wish you peace when the cold winds blow; warmed by the fire's glow.
I wish you company in the lonely times; arms to hold you when you ache inside.
I wish you hope when things are going bad; kind words when times are sad.
I wish shelter from the raging wind; cooling waters at the graves end.
I wish you peace when times are hard; a light to guide you in the dark.
And when storms are high and your dreams are low, I wish you the strength to let love grow.

A Friend,

Like a face, within a crowd of people who pass through your life.

Stopping for only a brief moment, only to make you smile and comfort you with good feelings.

They are as sunshine, with the warmth of security, and bright with the laughter of today and the love of tomorrow.

The memory of such is treasured, for the gold of sunshine which can neither be bought nor spent,
is the wealth of humanity.

To those faces, I say; thank you,
not just for being a good friend with sweet smiles and warm laughter...

but for just being.

Home games, boyfriends, dances, they're all a part of the most exciting years of our lives. High School has been a very fulfilling time for most of us; and the activities and friendships we've experienced will definitely hold some of our fondest memories. For those of us who are about to enter a new phase of living, we must remember this: God has given us the strength and insight to overcome the various obstacles that we have met so far; and I am confident that He will do the same for all of our future endeavors. My wish for you is that you will find your burdens light; and that your life is all that you would have it to be. My love to you all.

HAVE S

Chris,
To a very sweet person I've known for some time. Wish had good & bad times in English. Good luck in the Yedis to come and have a neat summer. Hope to see in the summer and have classes with you again next year.
Your friend,
Suzanne Chamalbides.

Chris,
It sure has been neat knowing you. I hope we can become better friends in the future. Stay the way you are Chris. Always keep that big smile on your face. Take Care, May God always be Blessing you.
Love Always
a friend
